The patient needs to consult a physical doctor for a fit-to-work medical certificate. This certificate is being issued up on the patient's request for whatever purpose it may serve, except for medico-legal purposes.

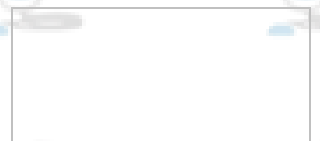

NOTE:

Patient is well informed of the limitations of the teleconsult. Physical examination can't be done online, the impression and management depend mainly on the history, signs and symptoms as claimed / narrated by the patient.

The results of the diagnostic procedures are best interpreted by the requesting physician or any physical doctor correlated by physical examination and should not be solely used as means for diagnosis and further management of your current health status.

The information relayed by the patient during the consultation is considered TRUE. My Pocket Doctor is not liable for any tampering and falsification of documents. It is punishable by law.

MyPocketDoctor does not issue fit to work medical certificate or provide extension of rest. Thus, patient needs to consult a physical doctor to secure the document/s. This certification is being issued upon the patient's request for whatever purpose this may serve except for MEDICO LEGAL purposes.
